DAVISON INTERVENTION

The Davison Intervention uses a co-facilitative coaching model approach to help individuals build meaningful and fulfilling relationships in families, marriages, careers and with God. Located in Dallas, Texas, the Davisons offer pastoral consultation, workshops, and coaching sessions for couples seeking to grow stronger and establish a life long commitment. While there is a wealth of confusing, misinterpreted, and sometimes inaccurate information available about how to create a successful marriage, this intervention process is designed to guide you to solutions that will enable you to live the lives you are seeking together.

COMMUNICATION

Communication is the bedrock of relationships.

INTIMACY

Waiting for a quiet period to be romantic?

FINANCE

Money can be a source of friction in many relationships.

ROLES

A marriage must have clearly defined responsibilities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Unclear division of labor in the home leads to conflict.

Our workshops cover five critical areas couples struggle with through married life. We offer tools and biblical perspectives that helps you maintain successful and happy marriages.
